WBC GREATEST FIGHTS OPUS

THE WBC GREATEST FIGHTS OPUS is a colossal book and a unique celebration of the Greatest WBC World Championship fights and the Champions of boxing that rocked the world over seven decades and still live long in the memory of boxing and sports fans the world over. Opus is proud to create this world-first story in official collaboration and partnership with the esteemed World Boxing Council (WBC)

CHAMPIONS WBC - GREATEST FIGHTS DEBATE - The Greatest WBC fights that have made it into this special Opus have been chosen in an unprecedented way, exclusively by WBC World Champions both past and present under the Chairmanship of the WBC President Mauricio Sulaimán, who all came together under one virtual roof whilst travel restrictions were in place due to the COVID pandemic. The remit for the Champions was to debate, argue and decide on the greatest fights from all weight divisions and different eras which they individually believed should be included and immortalised in the WBC Greatest Fights Opus. Bringing the Champions together for such a project could only have been achieved with the collaboration with the WBC and its President Mauricio Sulaimán.

In the debating room we had Jimmy Lennon Jr introducing Champion such as; Tyson Fury, Mike Tyson, Sugar Ray Leonard, Roberto Durán, Vitali Klitschko, Carl Froch, Julio Chávez, Thomas Hearn, Bernard Hopkins, Jeff Fenech, with Mauricio Sulaimán, President of the WBC presiding over the debate, with involvement and insights from more Champions including Joe Calzaghe, Tony Bellew, Amir Khan, Ricky Hatton, Josh Taylor, Frank Bruno, John Conteh to name just a few

Each Championship fight selected on its own merit has its own chapter, beautifully illustrated with dynamic and iconic fight photography presented in an unprecedented scale. And whilst the Tale of the Tape displays the physical attributes of our protagonists, a stylishly crafted essay written by award-winning writer, Ian Stafford, recounts the story that made each fight so special, what each fighter brought to ring, what they had to gain and lose and ultimately who won the spoils.

THE TOP 12 WBC GREATEST FIGHTS - The competitive spirit of the Champions assembled in the debating room emerged when tasked to rank the top 12 fights of all time with the results of that encounter being kept under wraps until now with the release of the WBC Greatest Fights Opus.

CHAMPIONS PORTRAIT COLLECTION - Another amazing feature in the WBC Greatest Fights Opus is the Champions Portrait Gallery. This particular part of the project began several years ago and includes the steely portraits of champions like Muhammad Ali, Marvin Hagler, Floyd Mayweather, Sugar Ray Leonard, Saul ‘Canelo’ Álvarez, Mike Tyson, Tyson Fury, Josh Taylor, Frank Bruno, Oscar De La Hoya, Roberto Durán, Joe Calzaghe, Tony Bellew to name just a few. Over 50 Champions portraits grace this unique gallery.

“Bonhams are honored to be working together with Opus and WBC to host this charity auction and we are glad to be standing alongside our friends at this important initiative. This is a unique opportunity for any boxing enthusiast to bid for – and potentially to own – an incredible piece of boxing memorabilia while supporting this most worthwhile cause.”

Auction Opening Bid

We are also incredibly pleased to announce here today that we have received our first opening bid of $100,000 US dollars from a Guernsey based consortium on behalf of the people of Guernsey.

A spokesperson on behalf of the Consortium said, “Our thoughts are with all Ukrainians as we make the opening bid for this unique and historic item of sports publishing. Having experienced occupation by Germany from 1940-45, the whole Guernsey community has an empathy with the threat Ukraine is facing from Russia and wants to help however it can. It was key to us that the proceeds of this auction for the Ukraine Peace Special Edition are going to ‘WithUkraine’, the humanitarian appeal from the Embassy of Ukraine to the UK. It’s appalling that it is needed following Russia’s invasion.”

Having been given the opportunity to be the Senior Designer for this incredible Opus in partnership with the WBC, I can truly say it has been an incredible honour and privilege. To re-live these fantastic bouts from the past and present has been both insightful and thought provoking; especially when the stories are combined with the stunning photography. I hope everyone who is a fan enjoys this Opus as much I have had in creating it and finally I would like to thank the members of the WBC who came to together to help create the WBC The Greatest Fights Opus.

Opus - WBC Greatest Fights Opus Writer, Ian Stafford comments:

It was an absolute joy to be the author of the WBC Greatest Fights Opus. The subject, of course, creates huge sporting debate, not only between fight fans but between the boxing greats as well. I think between all the legends of the ring we spoke to we have come up with the definitive list. And, in doing so, brought back so many amazing sporting memories. It was a pleasure to speak to so many of them and this Opus is a must for any sports fan, let alone fight fan. "

QUOTES:

CHAMPIONS - ON WBC GREATEST FIGHTS

“One of the all-time great fights, maybe one of the greatest comebacks in the history of the sport ... If that was me in Corrales’ corner I may have stopped the fight and saved him from taking anymore punishment but then he gets up and wins the fight”.

Jeff Fenech commenting on Diego Corrales vs José Luis Castillo

“That fight exemplified what great fighters are made of, heart, determination ... I watched that fight a thousand times because it inspired me.”

Sugar Ray Leonard commenting on Diego Corrales vs Jose Luis Castillo

“I nominate for both fights to be taken off the (greatest fights) list. In order to be a great fight it has to be super competitive ... for the first fight the only thing that made it super competitive was that I had been out the ring for three years, taking drugs, drinking alcohol and staying out all night and came back and gave him a boxing lesson for 12 rounds. So not a competitive fight. And then the second fight, I dominated his ass and knocked him out. So that’s not a competitive fight. So I vote the Fury Wilder fights off the list because they were one-sided beat downs.”

Tyson Fury commenting on Deontay Wilder vs Tyson Fury 1&2

“What a sad tragic ending, but the way Benn was put under the kosh, he was getting hit with big shots, he got knocked out of the ring and how different McClellan’s life would have been if Benn never climbed back in through the ropes. Benn dug deep ... showed the heart of a warrior... he’s in there to knock the guy unconscious, that’s the beautiful brutality of this sport we love so much.”

Carl Froch commenting on Nigel Benn vs Gerald McClellan

“I remember that fight like it was yesterday ... you knew someone was gonna be knocked out, it was just who. Both guys were just giving and taking - at the top of their middleweight careers To see that determination from Nigel Benn and represent that way after almost being knocked out, and go back in the ring and get his own knockout... This is why we talk about it years and decades later because it’s embedded in the history of boxing”

Bernard Hopkins commenting on Nigel Benn vs Gerald McClellan

“Great fights have a lot to do with how much contempt you have for one another. It’s more emotionally and mentally than it is physically. The desire to hurt somebody, the desire of the fear of losing, that played into it being an exciting fight. Their style made a good fight.”

Mike Tyson commenting on Riddick Bowe vs Evander Holyfield

“It was a fight that had the world’s attention. Lennox Lewis had just knocked out Razor Ruddock and became the mandatory challenger. There were a couple of rounds where they both hurt each other, back and forth action, dramatic 10th and 12th rounds so it’s absolutely one of the greatest fights.”

Mauricio Sulaimán commenting on Riddick Bowe vs Evander Holyfield

“I was doing commentary on the fight and about that time I was contemplating coming back into the ring and when I saw those incredible, amazing three rounds I said ‘No way!’.”

Sugar Ray Leonard commenting on Marvin Hagler vs Thomas Hearns

“That was a fight when Ali thought he had no chance of winning but he overcame that with belief and confidence!”

Mike Tyson commenting on Muhammad Ali vs George Foreman

“He (Ali) was the underdog. He was facing the big knockout artist, a long time out of the ring, he wasn’t supposed to win, came back, gave the guy a boxing lesson and then knocked him out. You can’t get any better than that. One of my all-time favourite fights.”

Tyson Fury commenting on Muhammad Ali vs George Foreman
