

A Handy Christmas Present for Families in the UK: Klender, the Most Beloved Dutch Family Calendar App, Launches Today!

23 December 2024

After years of development in close collaboration with Dutch families, family calendar Klender is finally here to help UK families tackle the chaos of modern family life.

Launching today at 2:00 PM, Klender offers the perfect solution for keeping everyone in the family on the same page, whether it's managing schedules, birthdays, or shared lists.

What Makes Klender Special?

The Klender app is designed for simplicity and flexibility, combining all the features a busy family needs into one app, like:

- A shared calendar accessible on all devices (Android, iOS, and web).
- Colour-coded family members for clear organisation.
- Shared lists for groceries, tasks, or holiday plans.
- A birthday calendar and easy import of external schedules.
- Privacy-focused: no commercial use of your data.

Goodbye Chaos, Hello 2025!

Klender is the family organiser that turns confusion into clarity. Trusted by families across the Netherlands, it's the only family calendar app receiving glowing reviews every day. Now, UK families can experience why Klender is so beloved.

A Gift for the Holidays

Klender is our Christmas gift to families in the UK. It helps families simplify their lives and start 2025 on the right foot.

Download the free Klender app today and bring organisation and peace to your family's busy schedule.
