

24+ Funding - Breaking News

Monday 12 May, 2014

Further to changes in Government funding, as of March 2014 learners aged 24+ who would like to study for Apprenticeship qualifications at level 3 or above with ICON TRAINING will now receive government funding through the Skills Funding Agency.

ICON TRAINING has almost 20 years' experience in providing high quality, innovative and visionary funded training within the active leisure sector. The Ofsted grade 1 training provider are industry experts and aim to deliver the best possible training tailored to suit every individual need.

Mac Cleves, Managing Director of ICON TRAINING said, "We believe that young people aged 24 plus need a platform to help them in to work; with grants available for Apprenticeship training it is good news for employers who are trying to build their workforce and great news for people aged 24 plus who are trying to get a foot on the career ladder along with industry recognised qualifications".

This funding could change again in the future, therefore places are minimal. To secure your places to ensure you have the highly qualified workforce you need for the future contact applications@icon-training.com.
