It is offering 33% off dorms and rooms at 33 of its most popular Youth Hostels, including Eden Project, St Briavels Castle, Treyarnon Bay, Brighton, Cardiff Central and Snowdon Pen y Pass, for stays between 27 November and 30 December. Since 2010 YHA (England and Wales) has made huge changes to its 160 properties and in the way it operates and looks. More than £34 million of investment has transformed how Youth Hostels look.

As well as the expected dorms and self-catering kitchens, YHAs now also boast private family rooms, en suites, restaurants and licensed bars. The bunk beds remain, but double, King and Queen size beds have been introduced to many properties. You'll even find the rooms in some properties boasting luxury roll top baths. One youth Hostel (YHA Wilderhope) even has a luxury four poster bed in its honeymoon suite!

No longer do you need to be a member to stay at a Youth Hostel (although you will benefit from even more discounts), they're also open all year round – making an ideal city centre base for a Christmas shopping or a winter wilderness to get away from it all. You can even hire out an entire property through YHA Exclusive Hire.
