3Somer Announces Top 10 Cities in the UK to Find Threesome Partners

Wednesday 22 February, 2017

The top 10 cities in Britain for threesome sex have been revealed by dating app 3somer. Hot on the heels of 3somer's revelation of the top 10 threesome capitals of the U.S.. 3somer has carried out similar research in the UK. They found that Britain's vibrant and eclectic capital, London, is the number one place in the UK for arranging three-way lovemaking.

Located in the center of England, London has a population of roughly 9 million. The popular dating app for arranging threesomes, 3Somer, found that the city came leagues ahead of the other 9 cities which made it onto their top 10 UK list. London, with 20.36 percent in 3Somer's research, is by far the place where adults seeking more adventurous hookups are most likely to find success.

After London came Manchester in England's north, then Birmingham, Britain's second largest city. Next came Bristol in the Southwest, followed by Glasgow, the largest city in Scotland. All of these cities achieved 1.6 percent or less, a big jump from London's impressive 20 percent. The remaining cities that feature on the top 10 list for a ménage à trois are Nottingham, Leeds, Liverpool, Edinburgh (in Scotland), and Cardiff (in Wales).

The majority of the cities are coastal or located on estuaries, with only Nottingham in the East Midlands, Birmingham in the West Midlands and Leeds in the North being inland.

3Somer's research recently revealed that New York was the number one city in the U.S. to fulfill a threesome fantasy, followed by Los Angeles. They also recently identified the top 10 countries in the world for a threesome, with the United States taking the lead with nearly 70 percent, followed by Brazil and then the United Kingdom in third place.
