UK: www.99worldartists.com today announced booking for an event to find 2 undiscovered artists to represent the UK on their global art community! 192 UK Artists are taking part in the Contest, and a public vote was held last week, with more than 10,000 votes cast, with 20 of the best artists from the UK shortlisted for the live event.

This online live event kicks off on 6th February at 3 pm culminating with the final on Valentine's day at 3 pm. This exciting live Contest will feature the shortlisted artists presenting their artwork to an eclectic panel of judges AND a live audience who will get their chance to vote for their favourite artists!

Terry Adams of Arts Council England says "I wanted to be involved in this innovative programme and project, showcasing emerging talent on a local and national level in the UK."*

*"I've been astounded by the high quality of Art that has been submitted. We've had a wide range of artists from all over the UK, from all different backgrounds and ages" says Vineet Vijh, Founder of 99 World Artists.

Lovejit Dhaliwal. an award-winning documentary maker, radio presenter & journalist with a long career at the BBC, working on programmes such as Woman's Hour, World Business Report and Newsday, has been announced as one of the competition hosts.

About 99 World Artists: We are a global community of handpicked emerging artists from across the world. Our mission is to promote diversity and inclusion in Art. We find hidden talent from every corner of the earth, providing guidance and assistance to artists to help them promote their work.

About our judges:

We have carefully selected a panel of judges. Including representatives from the Arts Council UK. Each judge has a diverse set of interests and specialisms. The judges will be looking for creativity, interesting ideas and skilful execution. The Contest is to select the artists, rather than judge a single painting.
