A Decade of Making an Impact: Social And Tech Innovations From SocialBox.Biz

Monday 12 February, 2024

Embracing the power of technology for good!

Tech innovator @socialboxbiz calls on UK businesses to re-use their old but useful laptops to help refugees and people experiencing homelessness.

The past ten years have been a whirlwind of success with the launch and expansion of the Laptops for Homeless moving into permanent accommodation, older people living in isolation and refugees integrating into British society programs, but we still have so much work to do. Each new partner is another advancement for us and for the underprivileged people we serve. Over the years, we've found that particular segments of the population are more at risk for not having access to a laptop. These findings reflect the research and data presented by many other organisations.
