A fully refurbished, all expenses paid, and mortgage free home could be yours for just £2

Monday 15 February, 2021

GiveawayGenie, a new UK company, decided to bring some excitement to the ongoing national lockdown by offering what they have called ‘an unmissable opportunity’ – a chance to win a house for the price of just £2-a-ticket.

The main prize of their first competition consists of a fully refurbished, 3-bedroom house with new kitchen, bathroom and modern interiors with all expenses and fees included. Also, a £5000 cash prize is on offer for one lucky entrant who shares the competition with friends on social media.

Each competition will also raise funds for a chosen charity with 75% of retained profits being donated. For the first competition ending on Friday 30th April, GiveawayGenie has chosen Alice House Hospice.

Hospice representative Greg Hildreth said: “We are pleased to have been nominated as the chosen charity to receive a donation from this draw. The money we receive will be used to provide care and support to local families affected by incurable illnesses. Thanks to GiveawayGenie and best of luck to all entrants”.

Mr Davison, who runs www.giveawaygenie.co.uk added: “It has been proving very popular, especially with those saving to get on the property ladder. It is truly the perfect opportunity to win a home and donate to a worthy charity, all for just £2”.

“Unlike similar house giveaway competitions, our main prizes are closely aligned to the regional house price averages, therefore, we can award our prizes with far fewer tickets sales which increases the odds of winning”.

“We hope our competition can stand out by guaranteeing a winner. If we do not meet the required entries, we will offer the winner 80% of the net ticket sales and donate 10% of net ticket sale to the chosen charity”.

“We understand how difficult it is to save enough for a deposit, and would like to offer the nation something to look forward to while donating to worthy causes”.

The tickets, which went on sale on www.giveawaygenie.co.uk on Thursday 4th February, are available to buy for those over 18yrs of age after answering a folk law question related to a town on Teesside.

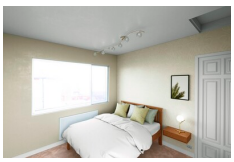

The closing date for the competition is Friday 30th April, with a live draw being held on Monday 17th May.
