A Salutation to Springtime: The Chelsea Barracks Spring Fair Returns to Celebrate the Season

Thursday 25 April, 2024

Sponsored by House & Garden magazine, the free event will feature the best of British food & beverage, an artisans' market, and workshops from pioneers in the design and garden world

Chelsea Barracks is thrilled to announce the eagerly awaited return of the Chelsea Barracks Spring Fair in partnership with House & Garden magazine. Taking place from May 22nd to May 25th 2024, the annual event, now in its third edition, promises to enchant visitors with a delightful celebration of spring amidst the iconic surroundings of Chelsea Barracks.

Coinciding with the RHS Chelsea Flower Show, the event is back on an even larger scale with House & Garden. The Fair has fast become a beloved tradition, hotly anticipated by residents and visitors alike. This year promises to be no exception, offering an array of attractions and activities to appeal to all ages and interests, with more exciting specialist reader seminars from the garden and design world, the treasured Artisans' Market and a variety of food and drinks for all to enjoy.

From May 22nd to May 25th, Chelsea Barracks will be transformed into a vibrant hub of activity, featuring:

Specialist Reader Seminars: Sponsored by House & Garden, the Spring Fair will feature specialist reader seminars led by experts in the fields of interior design and gardening. Attendees will have the opportunity to participate in exclusive workshops and discussions held at The Campaner, including Interior Design Clinics and conversations with industry luminaries. The seminars are £15 per person.

- 22nd May Design Clinic (2 to 4pm): Sign up to network with 10 design professionals from The List by House & Garden and enjoy an exclusive opportunity to pose questions to the experts.
- 22nd May Garrison Chapel (4.30 to 5.30pm): Join interiors guru and broadcaster Louise Roe in conversation with stylist Noni Ware.
- 24th May Garden Clinic (5 to 6pm): House & Garden editor Clare Foster discusses all things horticultural with Chelsea Gold Medallists Jo Thompson and Tom Massey.

program of contemporary art curated by New Public. The inaugural edition, titled "Chihuly at Chelsea Barracks," will feature works by renowned American artist Dale Chihuly, showcasing his iconic sculptures throughout Chelsea Barracks' public grounds. Launching on May 13th as part of London Craft Week, the installation will be open to the public until October 2024, inviting visitors to immerse themselves in art amidst the architecture and natural beauty of Chelsea Barracks.

Autumn Fairs: Due to the success of the Spring Fair partnership, House & Garden will continue its collaboration with Chelsea Barracks to curate two additional markets later in the year, a food themed edition in the Autumn, and a festive Christmas market as the Winter draws in -further enriching the community experience at Chelsea Barracks.

"We are delighted to welcome visitors to Chelsea Barracks for our annual Spring Fair," said Richard Oakes, [Chelsea Barracks Chief Sales & Marketing Officer]. "This event is a wonderful opportunity for the community to come together and celebrate the beauty of spring while enjoying a variety of exciting activities and attractions. It's always great to see our public grounds transform as the season draws in, and we're looking forward to working with House & Garden again on creating something really special this year – whether that's to explore the market, take part in the seminars or to simply soak up the atmosphere with a drink and a bite to eat. There's something for everyone!"

The Chelsea Barracks Spring Fair is free and open to the public, making it the perfect destination for families, friends, and nature enthusiasts looking to embrace the spirit of spring in the heart of London. The seminars are priced at £15 per person. For more information about the Spring Fair, please visit chelseabarracks.com
