

A Skincare Brand Built on Passion and Purpose

Tuesday 1 April, 2025

At just sixteen, Trevi Skin founder Rhythm Kaur stood in front of the mirror, frustrated by skincare that over-promised and under-delivered. Drugstore products irritated her skin, luxury brands were expensive, and “clean” beauty often lacked real performance.

“I started Trevi Skin with just £500 I had saved over the years from birthday money and small side hustles—determined to create a brand that doesn’t force people to choose between results, ethics, and affordability.” – Rhythm Kaur, Founder

She spent years researching high-performance ingredients, skin science, and industry innovations. While working tirelessly to bring her brand to life, Kaur also earned a university scholarship and traveled the world, drawing inspiration from global beauty rituals. Today, Trevi Skin is a fast-growing, UK-made skincare brand shaking up the industry.
