A step towards more conscious and sustainable consumer fashion.

Wednesday 10 August, 2022

Meet Your Wardrobe is now directly integrated into the Revstance checkout process.

Meet Your Wardrobe is a best-of-class peer-to-peer rental/resale platform with cutting-edge consumer sustainability analytics built into its wardrobe usage tracking functionality.

We have built functionality to connect your Revstance profile to your Meet Your Wardrobe profile.

From today when you buy anything on Revstance you can move the items directly from your orders page into your Wardrobe in Meet Your Wardrobe.

This is a significant milestone in providing our customers with the opportunity to become more sustainable and conscious in how they consume fashion.

Now on Revstance you will not only be able to support independent brands, but you will also be doing so in a way that is more sustainable.
