AGM Norwich Heartened By News that 3500 New Houses are to be Built

Wednesday 7 May, 2014

It has recently been announced by Broadland District Council that 3500 new houses are to be built to the north of Norwich which will have a very positive impact on Norwich as a whole. Because part of the plans involve two new primary schools, a health centre, a library, many new cafes, pubs and shops amongst other amenities this can only spell good news for the city of Norwich, and it is also a good indication that things are on the up when it comes to the local economy. Work will begin next year and it is hoped that the houses will be ready for occupation by the spring of 2016. The Managing Director of AGM Norwich is heartened by this news as has thinks this can only spell success for the people of Norwich.

He says, 'I always like to keep an eye on local issues and I follow the news to see what is happening in and around Norwich. I was absolutely delighted to read about the 3500 new houses which are being planned as I think this will be extremely good for Norwich. It is sure to bring new job opportunities and it will also help to build better lives and improve living conditions. This is brilliant news for Norwich and I am hoping that this is the first of many new developments to hit the area.'

AGM Norwich work within many sectors, one of which being the charity sector. They are specialists in customer acquisition and they pride themselves on being able to offer unrivalled customer service. They are clearly doing something right because in a recent customer satisfaction survey they found that 95% of clients seek repeat business from them. They boast a minimum 2:1 return on investment delivered on every campaign since 2012. Not just limited to the charity sector, their client portfolio includes sectors such as telecoms, cosmetics, streaming and home entertainment, banking and finance, construction and security.

AGM Norwich are results-driven and they are enjoying the successes that obtaining a larger market share is bringing them. They are very much looking forward to gaining an even bigger share of the market in the months and years to come as news of their abilities spreads further afield. There is no doubt in their mind that Norwich is thriving and they are watching these latest developments with interest.
