AI Start Up Revolutionising Business Communication Joins Barclays Black Venture Growth Programme

In Collaboration with Barclays and Foundervine, Brain Dump is Set to Elevate its Award-winning Voice Capture Solutions to New Heights

[Cambridge, 2023] - Since its launch in April 2023, Brain Dump has emerged as a transformative force in the landscape of business communication. Leveraging groundbreaking Natural Language Processing & voice capture technology, the platform has revolutionized how businesses capture, organize, and disseminate insights, effectively turning every conversation into actionable intelligence. This commitment to innovation has garnered significant attention, culminating in Brain Dump's selection to participate in the inaugural Barclays Black Venture Growth Programme. This initiative is designed to empower the brightest stars in the UK's tech and innovation sectors.

Adding to its recent accomplishments, Brain Dump clinched the third place at the ISG Digital Innovation Awards in May 2023, further cementing the platform's disruptive potential. Teaming up with Barclays and Foundervine within the Black Venture Growth Programme is poised to serve as a pivotal catalyst, propelling Brain Dump's trajectory of success to even greater heights.

Over a transformative 16-week accelerator course commencing on August 10, 2023, and extending through January 2024, Brain Dump, alongside 19 other top-tier scale-ups, will engage in a comprehensive journey:

CTO & Co-Founder of Brain Dump James Saward-Anderson, expressed his enthusiasm for the selection, stating, "Being handpicked for the Barclays Black Venture Growth Programme is a moment of immense pride for the entire Brain Dump team. It serves as a testament to our unwavering dedication to transforming brilliant ideas into actionable insights using our powerful AI technology. We are brimming with excitement for the journey ahead."
