All About Air makes Sense with Blueair

Friday 22 November, 2013

All About Air is releasing a revolutionary new product into the home well-being market, with the launch of the Blueair ‘Sense’ air purifier. Developed in Sweden, a country renowned for its minimalist and functional design, Sense promises to remove 99.97% of all hazardous pollutants from the air you breathe indoors.

Winner of the Red Dot Best of the Best Design Award 2013 - the internationally recognised seal of quality, Sense will help you to say goodbye to dust, chemical allergens and even viruses. Unlike its competitors, Sense enhances your home interior, is slim and stylish and its HEPASilent™ system works with unique advanced filters generating pristine clean air from the most efficient product on the market.

Available in Polar White, Warm Grey or Graphite Black, Sense takes ease of use to the next level .Simply swipe your hand over the glass surface to operate. Sense comes with a 5 year warranty for complete peace of mind.
Sense is available for £399 from All About Air.

All About Air is a leading home improvement brand that provides stylish products which enhance the quality of air throughout your home. Their enviable collection of products not only make you feel good indoors, they also look good; with a focus on both quality and appearance.
