All About Savings Aims To Help Commercial Energy Users Reduce Carbon Footprint With New Google Plus Business Page

Tuesday 27 August, 2013

All About Savings, the UK's favourite commercial energy brokerage, has launched a new Google Plus Business Page to help business owners across the country to reduce their Carbon Footprint.

"We have launched our new Google Plus Business Page along side our free Carbon Footprint reduction app in order to raise awareness that if business owners across the country follow a few simple steps they can quite drastically reduce the Co2 omissions that their companies are responsible for." said Maximillian Thornton, Marketing Manager at All About Savings in Altrincham, Cheshire.

Maximillian continued "The whole team at All About Savings strongly believes that it is the responsibility of every company in the United Kingdom, no matter how big or small, to actively try to reduce their Carbon Footprint. Over the past few months we have been actively trying to help companies do this by providing them with free help guides and simple to use tools, which we believe can show any business how easy it is to have a smaller Carbon Footprint."

All About Savings has become the first choice for many business owners who are looking to reduce their Business Gas & Business Electricity bills and has helped thousands of companies in the past year ranging from one man operations through to multi site corporations. Based in Altrincham, Cheshire the business team are always willing to share their knowledge of Energy Market Conditions with customers to help them make the most informed decision about their future energy usage and costings.
