All Classical Radio is here! Ireland's first station dedicated to classical music 24/7

Thursday 21 May, 2026

All Classical Radio has officially launched as Ireland's first radio station dedicated entirely to classical music. Designed as a space to focus, unwind, or just pause for a moment, the new radio station offers a calm place for great music. Listeners can enjoy a carefully curated mix of classical music, ranging from well-known favourites and film soundtracks to timeless pieces and contemporary works, designed to create a relaxing soundtrack for the day.

Broadcasting from studios in Liffey Valley, Dublin, All Classical Radio is produced by RadioHub, the experienced team behind popular stations including Christmas FM and Rewind Radio and the Exploring Ireland podcast.

"We are so excited to officially welcome everyone to All Classical Radio," says Daragh O'Sullivan, Content Director of RadioHub. "All Classical Radio brings Ireland a new, uninterrupted home for classical music 24/7. You can listen online on any device at allclassicalradio.ie, ask your smart speaker to 'Play All Classical Radio on Alexa' or listen on DAB+ in Leinster - simply press the DAB button on your car radio and find All Classical. We're delighted to share All Classical Radio and see how the music resonates with listeners. I also want to say a massive thank you to all our brilliant suppliers who helped bring this station to life, especially the team at Fáilte DAB for their invaluable support."

The station is currently broadcasting on a 12-month trial licence granted by Coimisiún na Meán. During this introductory year, the focus is on building a compelling case to make All Classical Radio a permanent fixture for music lovers across the country.
