Amanda Holden attends The Global Gift Gala wearing bespoke Caroline Castigliano

Friday 2 November, 2018

Amanda Holden looked sensational tonight when she attended the Global Gift Gala at the Rosewood Hotel in London wearing a stunning black two piece Caroline Castigliano gown handcrafted from fluid crepe.

The effortlessly glamourous gown featured a chic high neck open back loose fitting top paired with a silhouette-shaping fishtail skirt perfect on Amanda's stunning figure.

Caroline Castigliano said " It was a pleasure to dress Amanda for this important fundraiser she is a really down to earth woman with great values".

The Global Gift Gala is a unique international fundraising gala initiative supporting the work of the Global Gift Foundation, Eva Longoria Foundation and Rays of Sunshine. Special guests include Victoria Beckham, Robbie Williams, John Bradley, James Arthur and Tamara Ecclestone.

Guests were treated to performances by Alesha Dixon, Gary Dourdan and Melanie C while Nile Rogers, Holly Branson, Nilam Holmes and Olivier Giroud were presented with awards.

Castigliano's eveningwear range is exclusively available at the Caroline Castigliano flagship store in Knightsbridge, London.
