About Anemoye's Online Launch:

In the tough times of global pandemic, fashion boutiques are already witnessing a steep decline in offline sales. Retail therapy has taken a backseat. The launch of the online wholesale women clothing UK collection will make things easier for the dealers, wholesalers or fashion sellers who want to collect new arrivals for their customers.

Today, when the in-person trade shows are being cancelled, delayed, and the markets have been closed, wholesalers can replenish their inventory by shopping online. With a few clicks or taps, they can grab the hottest deals and offers from the comfort of their home.

Besides, with this online marketplace, wholesalers have the flexibility to explore new styles, expand their network, boost revenue, and make new leads. They can highlight their new arrivals via videos, lookbooks, or brand stories.

From jackets, swimwear, dresses, tops, pants, and undergarments to footwear in different colors and sizes, you can buy everything on this one-stop platform. By upgrading your stock as per the latest trends in fashion, you won't disappoint any of your customers.

Whether you are a store owner, wholesaler, or a private buyer, this virtual wholesale clothing boutique has made it easy to find a range of jackets and dresses.

All you have to do is to register with your account before being able to place the order. Once your account gets activated, check the price, see the number of items left in the stock, and order. They offer shipments all around the world (with a minimum order of 150 EUR), making it extremely accessible.

As soon as the product is shipped, they will send you dispatch information via email. If they don't obtain the authorization of your payment or the product you have ordered is unavailable in the stock, non-acceptance of the order may occur.
