

Auriga Services supports over 478K people facing financial difficulties and life's challenges

Wednesday 16 July, 2025

- Auriga services, a public benefit organisation partnering with organisations to support people through life's challenges, announces impact on those facing life's challenges.
- 478,650 people have been supported through a range of Auriga's support services.

Auriga Services has released its 2024/25 Impact Report, demonstrating its ongoing commitment to tackling hardship and delivering transformative support. With more than 478,000 people supported in 2024/25 alone, Auriga continues to be a trusted delivery partner for organisations across the UK seeking to support customers in vulnerable financial situations.

Auriga is a not-for-profit organisation, wholly owned by the Evnia Charitable Trust. Any surplus generated is reinvested into Evnia, amplifying Auriga's social value by enabling more people to be supported through targeted community funding. This unique structure makes every Auriga partnership a direct contribution to lasting social change.

A Year of Impact in Numbers

Auriga's 2024/25 achievements speak to both the scale and quality of its service:

- 478,650 people supported through Auriga's services
- £7.76 million in potential income and savings identified for beneficiaries
- £2.43 million in realised income secured directly for service users
- 418,831 emergency fuel vouchers issued to help households in crisis
- An average of £2,200 in annual income uplift per person supported through casework

A Message from the CEO

Jill Wheeler, CEO of Auriga Services, reflects in the report's opening letter:

"We exist to support people through life's challenges, with a focus on empowering those experiencing financial vulnerability and social hardship. Through our dedicated team, collaborations, and strong partnerships, we have delivered meaningful support across multiple sectors. We have remained committed to delivering services that matter...
