

Awards shortlist for Platform Global 2025 has been announced

Wednesday 23 July, 2025

London/Antibes, 23 July 2025 - The Council of Peers for Platform Global 2025 Awards has announced the shortlist for this year's Awards. The Awards aim to be globally relevant and give recognition to the most innovative companies and people in the sector. The conference networking dinner and awards presentations will be held on the evening 8th September in the grounds of the Bastide du Roi near Antibes.

The Council of Peers, an independent panel of judges, headed by industry veteran Alex Rabbetts has been in charge of reviewing nominations received this year.

"The judging panel has been overwhelmed by the number of quality nominations put forward and have worked tirelessly to reach this final shortlist," commented Alex Rabbetts, CEO of Corozon. "The data center industry is thriving and demonstrating the ability to grow, innovate, deliver and disrupt. It's an extremely vibrant and attractive environment for investors, financiers and AI platforms. The Awards evening will celebrate both the rising stars and industry success stories."
