B1 ORGANIC SUITES GETS NEW LOOK TO GIVE KOH SAMUI'S PLUSH FISHERMAN'S VILLAGE A FRESH LANDMARK

Monday 17 November, 2014

KOH SAMUI, THAILAND: The beachfront B1 apartments in the heart of Koh Samui's uber-chic Fisherman's Village has a new name to go with its major refurbishment following a change of management – better positioning the luxury property to cater for discerning travellers.

Now called B1 Organic Suites under the management of Koh Samui-based Kalara International Properties, the building's new light and airy contemporary look is high on style and in harmony with the surrounds.

B1 has always provided a stunning, uninterrupted vista of the Gulf of Thailand. But along with its gorgeous visual transformation, it has been enhanced by a number of special touches including free WiFi, UK TV, Premiership football and a swimming pool overlooking powdery white sand and a luminous turquoise sea.

The property is ideally suited for guests looking to maximise their tropical island getaway at the nexus of Koh Samui's most sought after address, and on the doorstep of a host of adrenaline-charged and laid-back activities.

Located in Bophut, Fisherman's Village is dotted with an array of fantastic dining options and cool bars. B1 sits at the village's quieter eastern end, providing a tranquillity that is a short stroll away from the main action. The property and location offer something for everyone.

Koh Samui boasts myriad pristine beaches and islands that are lapped by calm, warm waters, as well as lush vegetation and the welcoming, friendly embrace of the locals – that famed Thai hospitality.

Activities include elephant trekking, snorkelling, big game fishing, sea walking, boat charters, diving, golf and exploring the awe-inspiring Ang Thong Marine Park.

You can also better discover the wonders of Thai cuisine through cooking classes, go kayaking, loose yourself at spectacular waterfalls, visit glittering temples, take a tree-top tour and much more.

Kalara International Properties has been involved in every aspect of real estate for more than a decade. The expansive breadth of its expertise means it can cater for someone looking to rent a bungalow or find the perfect plot for a five-star hotel. It also has a presence in Phuket, Bangkok, Krabi, Pattaya and Koh Phangan.
