Best Businesswomen Awards 2024 Finalists announced.

UK Female Entrepreneurs demonstrating tenacity

The Best Businesswomen Awards have announced their finalists for 2024, all outstanding examples of exemplary female entrepreneurs.

Over the past twelve months, the business climate has tested entrepreneurs' resilience, and these determined and resourceful businesswomen have continued to drive their businesses forward.

The judging panel was impressed by the creativity, tenacity, and excellent business acumen demonstrated by the selected finalists.

The Best Businesswomen Awards are designed to recognise the achievements of female entrepreneurs from a wide range of industries. All of them excel in their chosen fields and have demonstrated their impact in their entries, underscoring the significance of their achievements.

London-based charity founder Elisabeth Hannah, of Cabaret vs Cancer has been shortlisted as a finalist in the Charity Champion category. Founded in 2016 Cabaret vs Cancer supports those affected by a cancer diagnosis through their work with nationwide charity partners.

Debbie Gilbert, the organiser of The Best Businesswomen Awards, said, 'This is the 10th year of these prestigious awards, and despite tough trading conditions businesses have faced over the past few years, these businesswomen have powered forwards. Our judging panel, all business experts, were impressed by the quality of the entrants. All our finalists are incredible examples of successful female entrepreneurs who have proved their success to our judges.'
