

Bicester Charity Helps Countless Families in Poverty Stricken Pakistan

Sunday 5 February, 2023

Mehiel Foundation, an international award-winning charity based in Bicester, UK, dedicated to tackling poverty and social injustice, announces its efforts to help vulnerable communities in Pakistan affected by the debt crisis and recent weather catastrophes. The charity has a team of dedicated staff on the ground to provide much-needed aid and support to those in need.

“The current situation in Pakistan is dire, with millions of people struggling to survive in the wake of economic hardship and natural disasters” says Lawrence Patrick, Founder of Mehiel Foundation. “We are committed to helping those affected and have our team working tirelessly to provide aid and support to those in need.”

Mehiel Foundation's work in Pakistan includes providing food and medical assistance to families, as well as rebuilding homes and infrastructure. The foundation is also working to address the root causes of poverty and social injustice, such as unequal access to education and healthcare, in order to deliver lasting change in the lives of underprivileged and vulnerable communities.

“We cannot stress enough the importance of supporting the people of Pakistan in this time of crisis,” says Adeel Aasi, Director of Mehiel Foundation's Pakistan Program. “Every donation, no matter how small, will make a real difference in the lives of those in need. We are grateful for the generosity of the public in helping us to make a positive impact in this challenging situation.”

Mehiel Foundation is appealing to the public for donations to support its efforts in Pakistan. The foundation is committed to ensuring that all donations are used effectively to deliver maximum impact for those in need.

“We believe that every person deserves a chance to live a dignified and fulfilling life, regardless of their circumstances” says Lawrence Patrick, Founder of Mehiel Foundation. “By supporting our work in Pakistan, you can help us make a lasting difference in the lives of the most vulnerable and underprivileged communities.”
