BigBathroomShop.co.uk Launch New Ultra 2014 Collection

Friday 28 February, 2014

Digital retailer BigBathroomShop.co.uk has just launched the new Ultra 2014 collection, and it provides the perfect way to create a fresh, modern look to any bathroom.

The new Ultra collection includes a superb range of bathroom products ranging from furniture, shower enclosures to showers, taps and baths, all in a choice of styles, so achieving your dream bathroom is within easy reach.

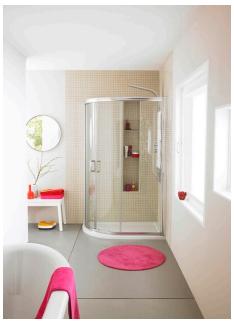

Available in an impressive range of sizes and styles including single and double-ended designs, shower baths, corner baths and a back-to-wall bath, the range of Ultra baths have been made in Britain from Lucite acrylic, in a choice of 4mm or 5mm thicknesses to ensure long lasting durability. Backed by an impressive lifetime guarantee, the Ultra Eternalite baths have been constructed from three layers; the first has a high gloss, smooth finish that's warm to the touch, the second is a fully encapsulated, high strength base board that provides better impact resistance, while the third layer features an Eternalite finish that keeps the water warmer for up to 30 minutes longer than a standard bath.

The collection also sees the introduction of a new range of shower doors which feature the EasyFit patented assembly system. This innovative system has been designed to allow for faster and easier installation of a shower door, and it eliminates the need to screw together the corner profile assemblies. Extremely popular with professional fitters, the Easyfit system provides additional structural strength and results in a more effective water tight assembly. Each shower door also features the Shower Shield easy-clean coating that helps to maintain shine and repel limescale.

The Design furniture collection is now available in two contemporary finishes including Gloss Caramel and Natural Walnut. The Ultra Design range includes a choice of floor standing and wall mounted vanity units, WC unit and wall mounted cupboards. The vanity units come with the option of two basin styles to suit any design preference.

The entire Ultra collection can be discovered at BigBathroomShop.co.uk.
