Birmingham band nominated for Mobo Awards 2015

Wednesday 30 September, 2015

Birmingham Trio 'Chos3n' have been Nominated for 'Best Gospel' at Mobo Awards 2015

Chos3n released their debut album ' We are Chos3n' in May of this year, and since then have received national and international airplay and great reviews.

Released on local independent label - Daisy Records, they managed to catch the ears of industry executives and have been nominated for a prestigious Mobo award.

The Mobo awards take place this year in Leeds on Wednesday the 4th of November 2015 and will be showcasing the very best of British urban music http://www.mobo.com/tickets,

This year will be the 20th Anniversary of the Mobo Awards and Juliette Farrell, Andrea Baker-Reid and Jamila Hinds-King said ' we are thrilled and feel very blessed, it is a wonderful surprise to have even been considered for such a prestigious award, we are very excited to have our music listened to by a wider audience and even more so that it is the 20 year celebration of the Mobo's.

The album 'We are Chos3n' was produced by Joel Farrell, and Tony Young with a guest track 'Dust your Shoulders off' produced by U.S. David Givens.

Track 'You're with me' features another West Midlands Vocalist Priscilla Bailey who met the trio through a local Gospel Choir - Birmingham Community Gospel Choir - who have just recently won Choir of the Year on Songs of Praise.

The Chos3n trio have just completed their first video for album track 'Where is the Love' with award winning Video producer Tim Watchorn. Where is the Love Video will be available from the 4th November
