Barratt Homes West Midlands is encouraging potential investors to purchase a show home at its Windmill Heights development in Smethwick on a 6 per cent lease back scheme.

The Barwick show home, plot 78, is for sale priced at £184,950. Any potential investor will earn a return over 12 months, which equals a monthly sum of £925.

The potential buyer will need to be able to offer the full asking price. Barratt will then rent the house for a year whilst keeping the property in tip-top condition.

The show home, at the development on Messenger Road, has been built to the industry's highest standards and has been decorated and furnished throughout.

The Barwick is a semi-detached family home. The ground floor comprises a lounge and dining area with French doors leading to the rear garden, a fully fitted kitchen with family breakfast area, plenty of storage space and a useful cloakroom. Upstairs you'll find a master bedroom with en suite, two further bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Katie Yates, Sales Manager for Barratt Homes West Midlands, commented, "Our Barwick show home offers great value for anyone who is looking to invest in property with minimal risk – as you have a guaranteed tenant for the full duration of the lease.

"And rather than having to worry about untidy tenants, the investor knows that we will maintain the property in pristine condition. We will also guarantee internal fixtures and fittings for a full five years."
