Cafe Quality Hot Chocolate Now Available Online With Ocado

Thursday 20 November, 2014

Kokoa Collection has a devoted following in cafes for its single origin hot chocolate made with real chocolate. Since its launch in 2011 they have championed the trend for cafes to serve authentic hot chocolate and now they want to give customers the chance to enjoy drinking coffee shop quality hot chocolates in their own homes.

This week sees its national launch on Ocado. All five varieties of the hot chocolates from around the world are available. With simple to follow recipe on the packs, the pre-portioned tablets of pure chocolate melt into a smooth paste finishing in a creamy hot chocolate mixed with hot milk. [£5.99 each per 210g bag]

Ocado are also stocking the full range of flavoured sugars with: rose, chilli, orange and cinnamon, and gingerbread spice which will be particularly popular with the white hot chocolate for Christmas. [£3.59 each]

Paul Eagles the founder of Kokoa Collection says

"For our award winning hot chocolate collection we source the highest quality beans. In cafes everyone loves the flavours of our choice of single origins in varying cocoa percentages so we are delighted to launch our retail bags on ocado for customers to now experience them at home too"

"Ocado have been really helpful with our launch, understand our needs as a small producer and have been exceptionally friendly. It's a big step for us and will boost our brand recognition"

About Kokoa Collection

From the sweet creamy white hot chocolate from Ivory Coast to the rich and indulgent Madagascar 82% there is something to tantalise everybody's taste buds.

Each hot chocolate reflects the distinct character of its cocoa plant variety, the unique habitats where they grow and the care given by local farmers. Each offers an experience of wonderful flavours with delicate fruity, nutty and floral notes.

The full range is five single origins in varying cocoa percentages:

White hot chocolate from Ivory Coast, Venezuela 58%, Ecuador 70%, Haiti 75% and Madagascar 82%.

Kokoa Collection has received the following awards:

Great Taste Awards, Academy of Chocolate, Caffe Society, Lunch Innovation.

For the 3rd year running cafes serving Kokoa Collection have been recognised by the Beverage Standards Association for the Best Hot Chocolate in the UK. The latest was Googies Art Cafe in Folkestone on 10th November 2015
