CAPACITAS APPOINTS SAMEENA HASSAM AS CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Thursday 9 January, 2020

London, UK: Capacitas Ltd., the leader in cloud performance and optimisation, today announced that Sameena Hassam will take over as Chief Operating Officer (COO) to help drive the company's rapid growth.

Sameena joined Capacitas as a placement student in 2005. She swiftly progressed to Principal Consultant and took responsibility for Service Delivery, ensuring consistent, high-quality delivery across the organisation. Over the years, she has played a pivotal role in shaping Capacitas' vision and the company's success.

Sameena said: "This is a very exciting time with the explosive growth of cloud computing. Capacitas has already created a remarkable business by helping customers get the most out of their technology investments. Now our proven approach and excellent customer relationships give us a solid foundation to scale Capacitas to the next level."

As COO, Sameena will play a key role in scaling Capacitas' business in Europe and North America. Global organisations are choosing Capacitas to optimise their cloud investment and remove technological barriers to growth, with customers including easyJet, Ancestry and WPEngine.

Andy Bolton, CEO of Capacitas, said: "We are a values-led organisation that recognises individual contribution. Sameena has done a phenomenal job building our service delivery capability. I am confident that her experience, drive, tenacity and business acumen will be invaluable as we scale Capacitas through this next phase of growth."

Sameena Hassam's LinkedIn biography can be found here.
