Caroline Castigliano Launches 2019 Collection ‘The Power of Love’

Tuesday 25 September, 2018

British born Caroline Castigliano, the UK’s market leader in luxury bridal wear, launches her latest bridal collection at New York Bridal Week this October at The London New York City Hotel.

Famous for gowns that create understated effortless glamour, Castigliano’s 2019 collection of timeless pieces with contemporary highlights create a chic up to the minute look.

The unique stretch corsets developed by Castigliano continues in the ‘Power of Love’ collection with bra cup corsets sculpting the figure to create a feminine and playfully sensual shape with layered laces of Chantilly and Guipure creating depth and texture.

Dayto night looks are key with sleek fishtail gowns paired with sumptuous detachable trains and delicate lace shrugs to transform the silhouette.

The essence of 50’s glamour is brought back with a modern take on the classic ball gown with full floaty skirts and sensual basque corsets making the statement.

The collection has been handcrafted in the UK from fluid crepe, satin faced organza and guipure lace alongside new modern laces with subtle beading creating an understated yet glamorous bridal vision. Colours are soft, ivory, blush, mocha and beautiful water colours.
