Celebrate your life as an animal lover - write or update your will for FREE

Thursday 30 September, 2021

Writing your will is one of the most important things you can do. That's why the Cotswolds Dogs and Cats Home have made the process as simple as possible by teaming up withthe Goodwill Partnership to offer supporters and animal lovers the opportunity to write or update your will for free.

Charity Spokesperson, Jane Ellis said: "Choosing to remember the Cotswolds Dogs & Cats Home in your will is an incredible way to celebrate your life as an animal lover. You may also want to ensure your pet/s are looked after when you are gone. By leaving a gift in your will we will commit to ensuring your pet/s welfare needs are fully met and that they are cared for by the charity until a new suitable home can be found.

To make or amend your will, you will receive a home visit from a trained local counsellor at a time of your choosing, and your will is then professionally drafted by a panel solicitor. To book your appointment directly with The Goodwill Partnership, call 0844 669 6148, quoting The Cotswolds Dogs & Cats Home, or visit: https://www.thegoodwillpartnership.co.uk/cdch/

You don't have to leave a gift in your will to The Cotswolds Dogs and Cats Home to take advantage of this will writing offer. However, without the support of individuals, they wouldn't be able to continue to help abandoned, mistreated and neglected animals.
