CELSYS, Inc. collaborates with Wacom on upcoming Wacom Intuos Manga Edition in Europe

Wednesday 12 October, 2022

Tokyo, October 12, 2022 – Celsys and Wacom today announce the launch of the Wacom Intuos Manga Edition, comprising a Wacom Intuos S Bluetooth pen tablet, a two-year license for the Clip Studio Paint Pro drawing app, and exclusive tutorial videos, so that young artists can immediately get the best start for the creation of comics and manga. This new bundle will be available online and in bookstores and manga stores across Europe.

Manga is becoming increasingly popular all over the world, inspiring many young people to start drawing and very often it is the first step to start creating digitally. Instead of having to constantly purchase new materials and trying to keep their hands clean of ink smudges, artists can enjoy a natural pen on paper feeling with access to thousands of tools and brushes through drawing digitally with this one-stop bundle.

As well as providing the application for the bundle, Celsys will also collaborate with Wacom in promoting the bundle, on social media and in print media, as well as in stores where the product will be sold. Celsys and Wacom will continue to collaborate with the goal of providing a better creative experience to artists around the world.
