Cherubim and Seraphim Church marks 100 Years with Centenary Celebrations in UK

London, June 2025
— The Cherubim and Seraphim Church, one of Nigeria's oldest and most influential African-initiated Christian movements, is celebrating its 100th anniversary this year with a series of iconic Centenary events in the United Kingdom.

Founded in 1925 by St. Moses Orimolade Tunolase
in Nigeria, the Church has grown from a small revivalist movement into a global Christian community spanning Africa, Europe, North America, and beyond. The UK has been a central part of this story, with the first branch established in 1965, making this a dual celebration of both the Church's Centenary and 60 years of presence in the UK.

To mark this landmark occasion, the Church is hosting Seminars and a Centenary Thanksgiving Service in Summer 2025.

The anniversary celebrations will feature:

HISTORICAL/SCHOLARLY SEMINAR – SATURDAY, 23RD AUG. 2025 @2PM. Venue - C&S Church Headquarters, 175 Earlham Grove, London E7 9AP

Theme: Collaborative Leadership & Making Membership Meaningful
