

Centerprise Services partners with Abacus Group to host TOMI OMS

Monday 13 November, 2023

Centerprise Services, Inc., an independent provider of advanced trading and order management systems for hedge funds and asset managers, has partnered with Abacus Group, the leading Managed Security Services provider to alternative investment firms, to host their TOMI order management solution.

Through this collaboration, Centerprise's TOMI clients seeking a secure and remotely hosted solution as a preference to on premises installation will benefit from the flexibility and scalability of Abacus Group's secure application hosting service which has been designed specifically to support investment industry software.

Eric Yu (CEO of Centerprise Services) stated: "We are very excited to partner with Abacus Group, bringing the benefits of their industry-leading cloud hosting service to our TOMI clients who want all the benefits of Centerprise's feature-rich OMS combined with the efficiency and flexibility of a specialist outsourced hosting proposition. Our collaboration provides hedge fund and asset manager clients with the best of both worlds."

Reto Tuffli (Chairman of Centerprise Services): "Abacus Group's experience and expertise hosting financial technology solutions is a great fit for our TOMI state-of-the-art platform delivering a highly efficient combination of security and flexibility which is greatly valued by the investment industry."

Eric Ziobro (Director of Strategic Partnerships at Abacus Group): "We are excited to partner with Centerprise. Their long-term track record serving some of the world's most sophisticated hedge funds is impressive. Centerprise clients will now benefit from our premium client services while leveraging our fast, flexible, and secure AppHosting solution."
