Charity announces funny Father’s Day eCards

Friday 10 June, 2022

Charity eCard platform Hope Spring announced the launch of its Father's Day greetings card on Friday, the 9th of June. In a post on their Twitter account, the charity announced twenty new funny father’s day ecards which were designed by one of their volunteers.

The new father day ecards, is set to go on sale from the organisation’s website from Monday the 13th of June, just under a week before Father’s Day. The announcement stated that the organisation’s supporters and the general public can order the ecards and schedule it for delivery on Father’s Day, if they are not able to order it on the day.

Hope Spring eCards social media manager Seun Olonade said of the new range of eCards “our funny father’s day ecards were particularly designed with animal lovers in mind.” She added that just imagine receiving a father’s day ecard from your cat or dog, most people will find it amusing. That is why most of the funny Father’s Day ecards feature a pet. We hope recipients will find them as funny as we did”.

Hope Spring eCards platform has raised thousands of pounds for clean water and period poverty alleviation works done in West Africa. You can find out more information about the charity on their social media pages and their website.
