L'Ortolan restaurant in Shinfield and Reading-based charity John Sykes Foundation will host the charity Supercar Gourmet Event on Wednesday 23rd September, which will give Berkshire car enthusiasts the chance to enjoy some of the fastest vehicles on the road.

Guests at the charity event will have the chance to drive supercars from car manufacturers including McLaren, Lamborghini and Aston Martin and enjoy the company of other car enthusiasts over Champagne and canapés and a three course lunch specially designed for the occasion by Head Chef Tom Clarke. There will also be a silent auction on the day with some generous prizes donated by our participating dealers.

Included in the line up alongside the petrol driven performance vehicles are the fully electric Tesla and a hybrid BMW i8.

All profits from the day will be given to local charity John Sykes Foundation, set up in 2014 by the Atlantis property entrepreneur with the aim of helping to transform the lives of people in and around Reading.
