Chorlton Makers Market Returns This Saturday for a Full Day of Local Shopping, Food and Family Fun

Tuesday 12 May, 2026

Chorlton, Manchester - The much-loved Chorlton Makers Market returns this Saturday, 16 May, bringing a vibrant day of shopping, street food, live music and community spirit to the heart of Chorlton. From 10am to 4pm, visitors can enjoy a lively atmosphere filled with talented local makers, artists, bakers and creatives, and as always, entry is completely free.

The market will feature an impressive lineup of independent traders offering everything from handmade crafts and homewares to artisan food, fashion, jewellery, candles and original artwork. It's the perfect opportunity to shop small, support local and discover the creativity that makes the Chorlton community so special.

This Saturday's event will also include:

- Live DJ sets all day from DJ Charles
- Face painting by iFacepainting
- A free children's crafting station with Magical Moments
- Delicious street food from Jyotismomo and Meksikan

A spokesperson for The Makers Market said:

> "We're so excited to be back in Chorlton this weekend. The Makers Market is a celebration of creative talent and community spirit - it's where local businesses shine and visitors can experience the very best of independent shopping, food and family fun."

With dry weather forecast, locals are encouraged to make a day of it, enjoying live entertainment, great food and a one-of-a-kind shopping experience while supporting their favourite small businesses.
