

CLARENCE JOINS AFRICA'S LARGEST LEGAL NETWORK, LEX AFRICA

Tuesday 22 November, 2022

Clarence Abogados & Asociados announced it has joined Lex Africa, enabling it to connect its clients to outstanding legal professionals across the African continent. LEX Africa is an alliance of leading law firms in 30 African countries and is Africa's largest legal alliance. Each member is an independent law firm whose key specialist focus is on general corporate and commercial law as well as litigation and dispute resolution.

Abraham Abia, Managing Partner said: "The entire team at Clarence Abogados & Asociados is delighted to have joined the largest legal network on the African continent and we are certain that this will translate into new opportunities but most importantly into a palpable improvement in the quality of the services we provide to our clients."

Pieter Steyn, Chairman at LEX Africa: "We are delighted that Clarence Abogados & Asociados is joining LEX Africa. This increases our membership to 30 African countries which fits neatly with next year's 30th anniversary of our formation. We look forward to working with our new colleagues in Equatorial Guinea".

Joining LEX Africa is Clarence's latest milestone as a leading pan-African focused law firm. The firm is already a member of the Nextlaw Referral Network by Dentons, The International Bar Association (IBA) and the Association of International Energy Negotiators (AIEN).
