

Command & Conquer: Rivals eSports Tournament Event (the Kane's Pimpin' Rivals Tournament) to Launch on September 12th

Wednesday 14 October, 2020

Moscow, Russia — The Crazy Psychopath (formerly Praetor Pyro), a tournament director with over ten years in eSports tournament administration working with IGN Entertainment, GameSpy, and the Championship Gaming Series, is pleased to announce that the Kane's Pimpin' Rivals Tournament was held on Twitch on the 12th of September, 2020 at 17:00 GMT. The tournament was sponsored by Gizarius, the most prominent patron of the Command & Conquer: Rivals eSports scene.

"The latest update to Command & Conquer: Rivals has made it an absolutely incredible real time strategy game that's ideally suited for eSports. The intense, action-packed 3-5 minute matches featured in Command & Conquer: Rivals are an absolute thrill to watch. The game has been picking up steam lately among the mobile gaming eSports scene and we're proud to be putting this tournament together," the tournament organizer stated.

Command & Conquer: Rivals, developed by Redwood Studios and released on December 4th, 2018, is known as one of the best competitive real time strategy games in the mobile gaming scene. Command & Conquer: Rivals was published by Electronic Arts, Inc. "Electronic Arts Inc. is a global leader in digital interactive entertainment. EA develops and delivers games, content and online services for Internet-connected consoles, mobile devices and personal computers. EA has more than 300 million registered players around the world (<https://www.ea.com/about>)."

The CrazyPsychopath, formerly known as Praetor Pyro and IGN Samodelkin, is a tournament director with over ten years of experience in tournament administration and eSports. He has worked with such entities as IGN Entertainment, GamySpy (a subsidiary of IGN), and the Championship Gaming Series. The tournament was broadcast live at twitch.tv/TheCrazyPsychopath (originally PraetorPyro) with live commentary given by both Praetor Pyro and Gizarius. Praetor Pyro will be portraying Kane, Command & Conquer's legendary leader of the Brotherhood of Nod.
