Corona Assistance: Cortado Supports UK Businesses with Free 50GB Data Rooms

Wednesday 15 April, 2020

Enterprises receive free cloud storage for team collaboration from 5 to 50 GB

(Berlin, April 15, 2020) Cortado Mobile Solutions, provider of the team-oriented cloud storage solution Teamplace, has put together a special free offer for companies in the context of the coronavirus pandemic. Anyone who wants to quickly and easily set up a virtual data room for their home office and for team collaboration will receive up to 50 GB for free use.

Those who prefer to work in their home office need a virtual room in which they can work and share documents with others in the simplest possible way. With Teamplace, such virtual workspaces can be created very easily, without VPNs and shared with colleagues, partners or customers. Cortado's cloud storage solution, which is dedicated to teamwork, offers Office 365 integration for editing documents, a comment function, file versioning, and an activity overview. The data is encrypted during transmission and securely stored on servers located in Germany.

Interested parties can register for Teamplace www.teamplace.net/en/home-office/ free of charge and start working with 5 GB of storage immediately. If this storage is not enough, Cortado will donate up to 50 GB during the corona crisis. An e-mail sent to hello@teamplace.net which mentions the data room's purpose is all that is requested in return.

The storage space is also free for teachers who want to use it for their lessons during the "corona holidays www.teamplace.net/education. They just have to send an email to hello@teamplace.net.
