

Corum client Bizview Systems, Budgeting and Forecasting Platform, Acquired by insightsoftware

Tuesday 24 September, 2019

Zurich, Switzerland (Sep. 24, 2019) -- Corum Group, the leading global M&A advisory firm for software and related technology companies, today announces that its client, Bizview Systems, has been acquired by insightsoftware. Bizview Systems with a leading position in the Nordics provides customers with a unified interface for faster, easier business planning and forecasting, dashboards and analytics.

With Bizview's scalable SaaS solution for performance management, clients have access to state-of-the-art UX-intuitive and browser-agnostic products that interact with the world's leading BI platforms such as Qlik and Microsoft Power BI, among others.

insightsoftware is a US-based global leader in enterprise resource planning (ERP) and enterprise performance management (EPM) reporting solutions. The acquisition marks insightsoftware's entry into the Nordic market and will bring a wider range of budgeting and reporting capabilities to customers around the globe.

"Over the last 18 years, Bizview has operated with a singular mission – to provide our customers and partners with faster, easier, more user-friendly planning and reporting solutions," said Oskar Kristiansen, CEO at Bizview Systems. "insightsoftware's mission aligns perfectly with our own and, together, we're expanding the number of automated, intelligent reporting and budgeting options for our partners and customers in the Nordics and around the world."

"It has been a real pleasure to work with the Corum team, we couldn't choose a better advisor when we decided to start this process," said Kristiansen. "A special thanks to Julius, who has done an amazing job for us from our first meeting in our office in Stockholm."

Julius Telaranta, Senior Vice President of Corum Group International, said, "From our client's perspective, the opportunity to partner with insightsoftware has given Bizview the ability to expand their presence globally and enlarge their product offering and capabilities. It's been a real pleasure working with Oskar and the Bizview team. We're really proud of this transaction and the results that it has brought for them."
