Crafted For Christmas

Wednesday 29 October, 2014

A North East microbrewery, which specialises in high quality cask beers, has crafted a range of gifts in time for Christmas.

Sonnet 43 Brew House, based at Coxhoe, County Durham, is now offering a selection of its award-winning collection, in bottles or minikegs, ideal as presents and stocking fillers.

Among the items on offer is a three bottle gift pack, containing a trio of light or dark ales, as well as a larger gift pack that incorporates all six.

This includes 330ml versions of Sonnet 43's Blonde Beer, India Pale Ale, Steam Beer Amber Ale and two Star Great Taste Award winner's American Pale Ale and Bourbon Milk Stout, as well as a 500ml bottle of Brown Ale.

For a more authentic brew pub-style experience, Sonnet 43 is also offering all of its aforementioned core range, excluding Brown Ale, in five litre kegs.

Sonnet 43 founder Mark Hird, said: "Sonnet 43's core range has been going down a storm in pubs and bars across the UK and these gifts are a great way of allowing discerning drinkers to enjoy the same taste in the comfort of their own home this Christmas."

All of Sonnet 43's gift packs and minikegs are available to order online at http://sonnet43.com/shop/ alongside a selection of glassware and other merchandise.

Prices start at £8.50 for a gift pack and £23 for a minkeg. More details are also available by calling 0191 377 3039.
