Crown Imperial Launch Textura - A/W 2016 Ultra-Chic Bedroom Collection

Wednesday 17 August, 2016

Crown Imperial is delighted to launch over 20 stunning new bedroom styles to mark its 70th year as a leading British furniture manufacturer. Ultra-chic, Textura offers a striking modern classic bedroom collection in a mix of 7 textured neutral tones and wood grain styles, perfect to create a cosy feel in the cooler months.

The new signature collection offers a tactile palette of complementary textured shades including white and grey light (pictured) to create a timeless bedroom sanctuary. Designed for modern living, Textura highlights a variety of versatile solutions, including a compact dressing table to maximise every centimetre while seamlessly linking the space.

Revamp your bedroom by adding warmth this autumn with Textura's three textured wood grain styles, offered in a rich sand oak, elm and Halifax oak. Ideal to mix and match with neutral or vibrant tones, the authentic long and end wood grain effect are a great furniture choice without the price tag of real wood.

Crown Imperial offers over 25 wardrobe configurations and four flexible wardrobe options, so customers are able to create an organised bedroom haven to suit their lifestyle. In addition, lower height wardrobes are available for children's bedrooms and loft rooms to achieve an ergonomic and practical fit. Find design inspiration atwww.crown-imperial.co.uk
