More Ways to Earn Cash Back

Just prior to the anniversary event, RebatesMe launched a new mobile app as a way for members to quickly capitalize on cash back opportunities wherever they are. During the anniversary event, those that download the app and sign in will automatically be entered to win a gift card.

The RebatesMe app is free to use by anyone interested in online coupons or cash back. It is currently available for both iOS and Android devices.

The popular cash back site has also implemented a new Cash Back Protection program available to all its members for free. Users must opt into the program separately, but once they do they are given access to an assortment of features that helps ensure every pound earned is kept. The program also greatly speeds up the processing time for filing missing cash back claims - helping get users their money sooner.
