Monday 1 June, 2015

For homeowners who are looking to refurbish their home it is very important to understand the cost of the home up front. DFP Building Services, the leading home improvement company in London and Surrey offer building packages and services that take account of the whole thing homeowners want to get their new home completed exactly as they want it all at great value for money.

DFP Building Services provides a complete range of building service packages at a fraction of costs. These packages can now be availed by London and Surrey residents who want to save a huge amount of home improvement jobs. Some of the building service packages provided by the company take account of the Landlord's package; this covers small jobs such as applying new silicone to the kitchen and bathroom, checking the safety of the windows and doors and taking electricity and gas reading etc. If safety is your concern, the security package is the best choice. This includes replacing the locks and rim cylinders, replacing the deadlocks, fitting safety chains and other lock issues. With this package, homeowners are certain that their home will be safe and secure.

Those who have kids in their home, Little Angel's package, maybe the service you want. It covers jobs like to assembling bed rails, playpens and cots, fit and check baby gates and other jobs concerning the little ones. Aside from the packages mentioned above, DFP Building Services also provides other packages such as bathroom detox packages, green energy packages, Velux blind fitting packages, kitchen packages, essential lifesaver packages as well as custom packages.

This only shows that in any home improvement project, DFP Building Services has packages that will suit the needs and demands of each and every London and Surrey resident. Home improvement should not be expensive, call DFP now and choose the packages appropriate for you.

DFP Building Services employ a skilled and dedicated team of decorators, plasterers and carpenters to lock services, flat pack assemblers and complete refurbishments team. Therefore, whether homeowners would want some decorating and painting to fitting a lock, it will be performed to a professional standard.
