Diamonds are a girl’s best (beauty) friend

Thursday 30 May, 2013

Want to look a million dollars? Well now you can with this decadent diamond-tipped microdermabrasion kit which brings a healthy glow to your complexion. It retails at £150 and its price makes it surprisingly cheaper than many salon treatments.

Nu Brilliance means you can get a professional spa microdermabrasion treatment in the comfort of your own bathroom. Most treatments use messy creams to polish your skin, but Nu Brilliance combines diamond-tip exfoliation with precision suction technology to give your complexion a healthy glow.

The diamond tipped heads provide a powerful exfoliating action, which lifts layers of dead cells from the skin’s surface. The suction head then plumps your skin, removing the remaining dead cells, so that your skin feels softer, smoother and younger.

It retails at £149.99 from www.JMLdirect.com and telephone no 0871 221 2677
