Wednesday 18 April, 2012

A FREE 6ft x 2ft top quality full colour printed PVC banner from Discount Banner Printing will help bring the crowds flocking to your charity, college or school event to help support and raise funds for your well deserved cause.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Press Release 17th April 2012 Doncaster, South Yorkshire Discount Banner Printing was established in 2008 and has grown to become one of the UKs leading designers, manufacturers and suppliers of the best quality printed banners, labels and exhibition stands and gaining a first class reputation in their specialist field with their clients along the way. They pride themselves on providing an excellent personal customer service experience looking after a clients order every step of the way at a very competitive price. These are, perhaps, the two most popular reasons why so many of their customers come back to them on a regular basis with repeat orders but, in addition, recommend Discount Banner Printing to other parties.

Managing Director, Shaun Pagin, stated Discount Banner Printing are extremely pleased to introduce this scheme for charities, schools and colleges throughout the UK at a time when donations to charitable organisations have reduced due to the current economic climate. We are proud to have a dedicated team of experienced designers, production staff and management who all share this desire. Just like every banner we sell, it is the real deal manufactured using durable PVC material, high-resolution full colour printing, hemming and eyeleting and can be displayed either indoors or outdoors with ease.

Having discussed your requirements in detail, our designers will create a custom design just for you. Using the latest technology and specialist machinery available in our state of the art factory we will print it on your charity, school or college banner measuring 6ft x 2ft and have it delivered to you FREE of charge with no delivery costs.

Shaun Pagin added We love to help schools, colleges and charities in any way we can whether it is for a fund-raising event or any other worthwhile cause. Having grown since 2008 to become one of the UKs top producers of high quality printed banners, labels and exhibition stands we welcome the opportunity to give something back to communities around the UK.

So, dont waste any time or indeed spend any money on a banner, contact us straight away so that we can start custom designing and printing your FREE charity, school or college banner for you to use at your next event. Furthermore, we will be pleased to replace your banner with a sparkling new one each year so that you can continue to publicise yourselves well into the future.
