

Don't be a moose, be a Blue Moose!

Wednesday 10 August, 2016

Sales and marketing firm, Blue Moose have shared their motto for achieving top results and revealed what it takes to be a Blue Moose.

The stereotype of the moose is that it is slow-witted and comical. In a number of cartoons including the much-loved Rocky & Bullwinkle series, the moose is painted as the dim-witted character. However, Blue Moose highlights that this couldn't be further from the truth. Despite its slightly comical appearance, the moose is a highly intelligent animal with a very powerful kick to defend itself against predators, which there are few of due to its size. Blue Moose outlines how a moose calf learns to run within 2 days and is swimming well within 2 weeks of being born, making moose extremely clever animals.
