Travel Republic says; don't just take our word for it!

Book a Travel Republic holiday with confidence… we are backed by over one million personal advisors

Ever wished you had someone to help you decide if you're choosing the right hotel for your holiday?

Leading online travel agent, Travel Republic, now has over one million verified accommodation reviews, which can be viewed on both its website and new mobile app, helping customers to see exactly what other people genuinely think about a place that's been reviewed, before they book!

Upon returning from their holiday, all Travel Republic customers are given a secure log-in to submit their review, meaning that these reviews are based on their experiences.

Ian Simmonds, Commercial Managing Director for Travel Republic says, "To be able to feature over 1 million independent reviews, purely from our own customers, is a great achievement and it allows customers to book with us with confidence. Travel Republic prides itself on putting its customers at the heart of everything it does, and featuring reviews that can be totally trusted, from fellow travellers, is a great means of doing this."

Of all the properties, with 100 or more reviews, Travel Republic's top scoring hotel is a three-star hotel in Zante, Greece. The Dream (Oniro) Studios start from just £24 per night, based on a self-catering base and two people sharing.

Simmonds continues, "Not only is our review system a great way to check out quality, but it also aids a customer in getting value for money. It proves that it's not necessary to spend a lot of money or only consider star rating in order to have a fantastic holiday experience! Our reviews can help people make an informed decision on what accommodation would be best for them and their family or friends, and illustrates that the most expensive doesn't always come out on top."

Fun fact:

- The most-reviewed hotel on the Travel Republic website is the Sol Pelicanos Ocas in Costa Blanca - setting for the TV series Benidorm - which has attracted more than 3,140 reviews!
