Dr Naveen Bhadauria Announces Move to the Schoen Clinic London

Wednesday 2 November, 2022

(London) 03/11/2022 – Dr Naveen Bhadauria, a private rheumatologist with a hitherto established practice on Harley Street, has announced his decision to move the practice to the Schoen Clinic Orthopaedic and Spinal Hospital in London. Dr Bhadauria looks forward to meeting with patients in his new location in the heart of the capital.

As a private rheumatologist, Dr Bhadauria specialises in rheumatoid arthritis, osteoarthritis lupus, fibromyalgia, chronic pain, and other related conditions. His recommended treatments are in keeping with the latest standards of care and medical science.

The decision to join the Schoen Clinic was an easy one for Dr Bhadauria. Schoen Clinic Orthopaedic and Spinal Hospital has an excellent reputation for providing high quality, compassionate care to patients of all walks of life. Their London offices are conveniently located and easily accessible to Dr Bhadauria's current and future patients.

"Joining the Schoen Clinic offers the opportunity for me to expand my practice and reach more patients with the care they need and deserve," Dr Bhadauria explained. "I truly look forward to what this move will mean to both my practice and my patients."

While Dr Bhadauria's profile and contact information are not visible on the Schoen Clinic website at the time of this writing, it should be made available in the very near future. In the meantime, current patients can expect to be contacted and provided information about the new location. Alternatively, Dr Bhadauria can still be contacted via his website at www.privatelondonrheumatologist.com, or the Schoen Clinic can be contacted directly.

About Dr Bhadauria

Dr Bhadauria is a graduate of Guy's, King's, and St Thomas' medical school with a degree in immunology. He went on to study further with specialty training in rheumatology and general internal medicine. In addition to his private practice, Dr Bhadauria also conducts research with the NHS. His most recent research projects involve investigating two separate medications for managing ankylosing spondylitis.

About the Schoen Clinic
