

Drama Club Remembers Much?Loved President John Williams

Tuesday 2 June, 2026

Iver Heath Drama Club will dedicate its upcoming summer production to long?standing member John Williams, who passed away in December 2025 at the age of 67 following his battle with Parkinson's disease.

John, from Slough, was a committed member of the non?profit community drama group for around 30 years, appearing in a wide range of plays and pantomimes. He also served as the club's President for several years until his death.

"John was our club president for several years, so it feels perfectly fitting that we dedicate our summer show to him, in his memory," said Carol Campling, Treasurer of Iver Heath Drama Club.

The club will perform Return to Hotel Doom, a standalone comedy sequel, on Saturday 13th June.

"John appeared as Major Horseradish in the original Hotel Doom play a decade ago. His kindness offstage and his impeccable comedy timing are fond memories we all treasure," said Lee Hall, the play's author and director.

The community is invited to purchase tickets for the two?act show at www.ticketsource.co.uk/ihdc. During the performance, the club will also be encouraging donations to the Slough, Windsor and Maidenhead branch of Parkinson's UK via the show's programme and interval screen. The charity supports people living with Parkinson's and funds vital research into new treatments.

John's widow, Mrs Joanna Williams, met her husband at the drama club around 25 years ago when she appeared in the club's shows. Earlier this year, she was invited to take on the role of Club President in his honour.
